BOYTON has gone West. It is a very sensible move for him, as he always wants

JUDGE TOURGEE is said to be preparing new novel to be called, "Give us a Rest." He has at last struck a chord in the popular

THE ST. LOUIS Post-Disputch denies the rumor that Gen. John B. Clarke, of Missouri, intends to resign his seat in Congress. Let it be recorded.

ARE WE TO HAVE the New York "idee" as a substitute for the Ohio idee? A pair of Cabinet officers from one State would seem to be a fair beginning.

ALABAMA boasts of a bouncing boy named Bell. He is only thirteen years of age and weighs 355 pounds. As he is known as the Pike County giant, his dimensions must be extensive in all directions.

PERHAPS BECAUSE there is a "b" in both, Berlin takes zealously to balloons. A society for the promotion of serial naviga-tion has been established in that city, all the members of which promise to be high

AFTER ALL THE PRETTY POETRY that Bostonians have lavished upon the sweet waters of the Cochituate, that ungrateful stream has gone back on them, and tastes a bad that the leading hotels and many private citizens are purchasing drinking water from the neighboring farmers.

MISS MAREL WILBERFORCE goes up for nine months of hard labor for perjury in an English court. It seems that Mabel made a mistake when she alluded to herself as the ward of a distinguished citizen of Indianapolis by the name of Morton. The late O. P.'s pedigree and surroundings were too

THE WEATHER PREDICTIONS for th month of November are calculated to make the hair stand on end with horror. If the scare is needed it would be well to take it now and be sure of the sensation, as it is just possible that the hideous jumble of winds, floods, snows, tidal waves and earthquakes may not happen to occur.

HARRISON, the boy preacher, announce that he is not sure he ever will die, but in case he should, he expects the angels to come along and tuck him up under their wings. The little story of Elisha and the ascending chariot has not been repeated for some time, but it has the advantage of dispensing with the undertaker's bill.

A VERY grim story is told of Grimsby in England. It is said that Good Queen Bess who delighted in beauty, was so touched by the uncommon ugliness of the women, that she allotted a piece of ground as a marriage portion to every native woman of the di Upon this tenure, so derived, the holders have voted ever since. Five hundred freemen have been struck from the rolls recently, who thus derived their vote from the ugliness of their very great grandmothers of three centuries ago.

IT IS TRULY mournful to parrate th downfall of the gentler sex, but "facts is REGULAR PRICE NEVER BELOW A facts." "Large numbers of women," says the Chicago Times, "have caught the craze for gambling in grain, and the bucket-shops, or 'exchanges,' for the special benefit of the Only 25 Pieces. Call Early. gentle sex, have multiplied in this city since the beginning of summer. 'Women's exchanges' have been described many times, but a change seems to be coming over the business. The novelty of the thing has worn away, and hundreds of women have come to look upon speculation, as they call it, much in the same light as the men do who take risks on the regular boards. This feeling is not general, however, and considerable trading is yet done for ladies who would not have their names known for the world. It is the stolen fruit of their dails lives, and the taste of it is sweet indeed. Not a few of the brokers have 'tickers' in their houses, and a cotorie of ladies moving in the same circle form a speculative syndicate, meet daily at a residence that is the market, and send their orders to som broker with whom they have established a

WE WOULD INFER from the prevailing tone of the American press that Mr. Ingalls, of Kansas, put both of his feet into it when he went out of his way to insult the Marquis de Rochambeau. The Marquis had kindly proposed to sell the United States a valuable lot of Revolutionary correspondence, maps, charts, &c., the property of his distinguished ancestor, who had enjoyed the personal confidence and esteem of Washington, and whose posterity should ever be held in grateful remembrance by the nation he helped to create. The Library Committee agreed to purchase these valuable contributions to American history for the sum of $20,000, a mere bagatelle to the Treasury of the United States. moved the great man from Kansas to moved the great man from Kansis to say:

It appears to me, after these gentlemen have been invited hither as the guests of the nation, and entertained at the nation's expense, that it smells a little of the pawn-broker's shop, a little of dealers in second-hand clothing, to place the most distinguished of these guests in the attitude of asking the nation to make him a benefication of $20,000.

I respeat, sir, with all due respect, that the deelarations made here have placed the French guests in an attitude before the nation that I am anwilling to believe they desire to occupy. I hope that this matter may be further considered before a resolution is adopted committing the Seame to the purchase of these papers from the Marquis de Hochambeau upon the assumption that it is a charity bestowed upon him because he is too poor to present them, as he would otherwise be glad to do, to the American people.

It is the misfortune of all legislative bodies that one man of contemptible instincts dies that one man of contemptible instincts can do a great deal to compromise his fellow-citizens before the world. So far, however, as the press is concerned, the Marquis is receiving assurances that the American people decline to be stockholders in such scurrility and insults.

Open 14 Up.

The revision of the war treasure of the German Empire will shortly be made. This treasure, which is said to amount to 120, 000,000 marks in gold coin, is deposited in the Julius Tower at Spandau. The two commissioners whose duty it is to verify the treasure each possess a key of the chamber in which it is kept, and the door opens only when the keys are applied simultaneously. The treasure is divided into ten lots, and each lot is further subdivided into twelve others of 1,000,000 marks, or 423,000,000, carns no interest.

A Lucky Accident.

San Francisco Bulletin.

The latest "rush" in Idabo is to the North Fork, about fifteen miles above Ketchum, where a ledge, two and a half feet wide, of milling ore that assays up in the thousands was discovered about ten days ago. The discovery was purely accidental. A prospector slipped from a ledge of overhanging rock into the water. In crawling on the bank he saw native silver and copper stains protruding from a crevice. A few minutes' work proved the existence of a ledge.

Prompt Action Demanded. Prompt Action Demanded.

Joaquin Miller threatens to go on the stage. Now stop right here. This is a peaceable, law-abiding nation, not given to deeds of violence. But some things demand prompt action. We advocate the appointment of a committee of twelve determined men to call on Mr. Miller and notify him of the scutiments of the republic on this matter, and if he doesn't acquiesce, act in the interests of humanity.

Appropriately Named.

St. Louis Republican.

Parson Wild, of Toronto, the ex-Brooklynite who discovered that St. Patrick was really the prophet Jeremiah, now predicts a military dictatorship with Grant as dictator, to be followed by a political unification of all English-speaking people under a government having its seat at Jerusalem.
The parson is appropriately named.

How the Fund Stands There are thirty-one $5,000 subscription to the Mrs. Garfield fund, three of $2,000 and eighty-seven of $1,000 can The smallest subscription is five cents from a poor colored person, and the larges single contribution, $10,000, from a Phila delphian. There are in all about twelve hundred subscriptions.

Presence of Mind.

Some men have great presence of mind, When they see a pretty girl slip on the lee or a banana peel and full, and they rush to pick her up, they examine the first thing to see if she has troken her ankle, before they let her try to stand.

Try it in Virginia. The Louisville Courier-Journal would proceed against "the abominable pistol" by taxation. It wants the dealer to pay $25 on every weapon sold, and the person carrying one to pay a Heenas fee of $30, the default of which there is to be a fine of $30.

A Discrimination.

The Detroit Free Press gets it about straight when it says: "A man who goes up in a balloon and comes down all right is called a professor. A man who goes up and comes down all wrong is called a fool."
